It's been simply a fabulous summer of activity and good weather. Many of our members have volunteered to organize and run the trips this year with great success. Thank you for your support of the club and great activities for our membership. I hope that many of you will attend our ACTIVITY PLANNING NIGHT at Darrell's home on Wednesday, October 17th. Mark your calendars!! We need to tap into your creative ideas for next year's activities. GM Ski Club is proud to offer such a variety of activities and trips to our membership, we need your input to come up with new ideas to keep everyone's interest.

Great drink specials are also available. See you all there....

GMSC Activities Planning Night Wednesday Oct 17

Many GMSC Hands Make Small Work

Ever wonder what makes the GMSC such a great club and how it's possible for you to enjoy so many activities and make so many new friends? Ever wonder who to thank for all these great opportunities? Well look in the mirror and you've found the one to thank. GMSC wouldn't be anything without the members of its community. We all band together, contribute a little and get a lot in return. Just take a look at the list of contributors from 12/01/11 – 12/31/12. No fewer than 40 individuals have contributed to making GMSC activities what they are. And this does not even count the board members valuable administrative efforts. A little effort from a lot of people amounts to big things for all of us. Planning for next year's activities will start Wednesday, October 17 at Darrell Ahlberg's house. Please plan to attend and let us know what you'd like to see happen. This promises to be an evening as festive as it is productive. Contact Darrell Ahlberg 586-899-8203 dahlberg7@comcast.com.

GM Ski Club Biking

Well, I didn't put anything in the Sept. newsletter about biking so since I last reported, we have had four biking events: the 29th of July, the 12th and 26th of August and the 9th of September. Each was kind-of different, either in attendance or venue or activities on or after the trip.

The 29th of July was the hottest weather and yet it was the best attended. We rode our most frequently traveled trail, the Paint Creek trail, but as you can see from my picture at our post-effort watering hole, the Rochester Limelight, we numbered around 25 partying participants.

Our next outing on the 12th of August, a decent weather day, had only 8 people show up. I figure it was because I ran that outing instead of Stan. Fortunately they were 8 strong cyclists because we detoured from the Macomb Orchard trail into Stoney Creek. It was six miles of up and down and down and more up. My thighs ache just recalling the experience but we had a couple of Skiwis, Lee and Larry, who attended and had a tandem bike and I'll be darned if they weren't able to circle the lake twice.

Next was the 26th of August – another hot day – relatively small turnout. But our reward was that we took the Clinton River trail into “downtown” Auburn Hills and stopped at some Irish-named bar to liquid fortify ourselves for the trip back where we re-liquid-fortified ourselves at the Limelight.

Our final trip, for this report, was on the 9th of September. It was a relatively cool, beautiful day and we rode on the West Bloomfield trail, an extension of the Clinton River trail, which most of the 15 or 16 of us who showed up had never biked on before. The trail ran south of Upper Straits and Orchard lakes. It was an okay trail but afterwards Vickie Slicker, who was on the trip and lives in the area, opened up her home for a post-biking gathering. So after we were done we arrived at her place to cool breezes from her lake, a big table spread with good food and Gary Ward cooking burgers on the grill. It don't get any better than this.

So, if you look at the accompanying pictures, you will see we have a little core of regular attendees and a lot of people who drift in and out. I would like to see that “little core” grow. You can see that, big group or small, we always have an exciting and fun event. Having more people does tend to make it more fun, though, so for you in & out drifters and for those who have not joined us in the past, Stan and I personally invite you to come out and see what a great activity our biking has become.

I noticed that our calendar does not show any October rides currently scheduled. Probably because we have so many other things going on, but watch Darrell's e-mail postings to see if we can squeeze one in. If not, keep this invitation in mind as a fun event for next year.

A little bit of paint, a little bit of wine, and a whole lotta fun!!
