June 23, 2006

Pub and Grub (formerly The Dive of the Month, formerly Friday Night Out) for the month of June is The Locker Room Saloon, located at 7790 Auburn Utica MI 586-731-3363. The date is June 23rd 2006, and the fun starts at 6:30 pm.

Come out for diner; come out for the fun. Entertainment, dancing, drinks and more, this is a very lively spot; get here early. You have to check out the barber chair. Is it your birthday, anniversary or your friend's? Bring them along. See you there.

For more info: Call Les 248 693-1794 or email lskrzycki@ameritech.net.

Our Membership committee wishes to report on-going success in our recruitment drive. Steven B. Ragan is our newest member, born last November. Thank you, Bruno and Cathy, for unselfishly helping us to increase our ranks.

F u l l M o o n S a i l

We sail Friday, June 9, which is actually two days before the full moon. (Hey, don't expect too much of us. This is done by committee).

- 6:00-7:00 p.m. Assemble at the gazebo at A dock, Jefferson Beach Marina, on Jefferson between 9 and 10 Mile Roads. Receive your boat assignments.
- 7:00 p.m. SHARP! Shove off. We must be well into the lake before...
- 7:28 p.m. Moon rise. Yes, time and tide and the moon wait for no woman or man. This is the feature event of the evening. There will be a prize of a bottle of Luna de Luna wine for the first person in the flotilla to spot the rising moon. All vessels will maintain radio contact on channel 71 for fleet coordination and to report moon sightings.
- 9:08 p.m. Sunset. We anticipate a rosy glow, the fabled "red sky at night," and the further mellowing of the now high-flying moon.
- 10:00 p.m. Return to dock (though individual vessels, of course, may stay out as long as they wish, until the passengers and crew start to mutiny).

In the event of rain, we will run this same scenario again Saturday, June 10; except the moon rise occurs at 8:40 p.m. and the shove-off time will be at 7:00 p.m. soft, not sharp.

The cost is $15 per person, which includes sub sandwiches and snacks. You must provide for your own "special" food and drink requirements. All participants must wear soft-soled shoes with white or light-colored soles. Anyone who wears clod-hoppers will remain on the dock.

The 30 spots for this event are already filled, but contact Gregg Ronan, 586-979-9512, to get on the waiting list in case we acquire more vessels.

May's Pub & Grub

Friday, May 12th, members and friends showed up at Hooters in Troy for some food, libation, and a fun time. As we experienced, this is always a great venue to eat, drink, and watch a game or two (not to mention watching the Hooter staff moving about and taking care of business). Food of choice varied from the hot wings (their specialty), burgers, oysters (yours truly), and other typical "pub grub." We will certainly give this consideration for a return trip in the future.

Bocce Ball

—can you have more fun on Saturday afternoon? Hey if it's raining, not sunny and you have two courts, a group of fun loving folks, some food and a bit of adult beverage, I think it makes for a good time. That is what we did on Saturday, the 22nd of April.

This is a different kind of game. Skill and luck do play a part of winning. Check out the pictures to see who was there. Next time come out and join us. I would like to think that we could make this an annual affair. Let's see what we can do. Have fun and enjoy the summer.
