ATTENTION • SKIERS • RACERS • INSTRUCTORS

Beginners and Experts alike can Ski better without extra effort or ski lessons....Attend and find out how.

Mark your calendars and plan to attend this seminar

Once again the Metropolitan Detroit Ski Council (MDSC), in conjunction with Performance Zone is sponsoring a seminar on skiing and balance, with featured guest speaker Warren Witherell. Warren, considered to be the definitive expert of the carved turn and modern skiing for more than twenty years, is the noted author of the books The Athletic Skier and How The Racers Ski.

This seminar will inform you of how important balance is in skiing and how it can be directly affected by poor knee alignment and boot fit. You'll learn some basic methods used to evaluate stance and balance, and how easy it is to correct these deficiencies that WILL result in an immediate improvement in your skiing ability WITHOUT ANY ADDITIONAL EFFORT. You will ski better because your knees and body will be better aligned, enabling your skis to work the way they were meant to. Proper alignment will enable you to experience the thrill of "CARVING" the turn instead of skidding through it and give you new freedom in your skiing.

WHERE: PERFORMANCE ZONE, 2749 University Blvd, Auburn Hills (1/4 mile East of I-75 on the North side of University Blvd., in the Auburn Crossing Shopping Center)

WHEN: Tuesday or Wednesday Evening, November 17th or 18th, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

COST: FREE to MDSC Clubs interested in SKIING BETTER

Seating is limited to the first 100 people each evening.

Contact the Performance Zone at (248) 371-3800 to reserve your seats.

Performance Zone specializes in custom orthotics, custom boot fitting, stance evaluation, and balancing. Performance Zone is the only store of its kind in Michigan that is staffed by board certified Orthotists and Pedorthists.

Those who attend may be eligible for a free, no obligation alignment evaluation at Performance Zone - details will be available at this seminar.

If you don't know what a Warren Miller Movie is, let me explain. It is a movie about all sorts of skiing adventures from around the world. You can witness skiing in the most extreme sense. Be amazed at how these dare devils will ski, or attempt to, slopes where mountain goats are smart enough to avoid. Warren Miller Movies also highlight skiing adventures in the common comical sense. Skiing is made up of all sorts of fun and outrageous individuals that becomes part of the Warren Miller experience on film. These are wonderful productions that set the inspiration to get out and go skiing.

Bavarian Village is hosting this event and I am told that there will be drawings for some wonderful door prizes. This is not an evening to miss.

From the press release:

Throughout "FreeRiders," Warren Miller's camera crews travel near and far to find freedom and capture the essence of the freeriding experience. This year's film grabs audiences and whisks them away to exotic locations around the globe. Viewers will experience the steeps of Portillo, Chile; witness a dazzling air show at the Nissan FreeRiders Exhibition in Steamboat, Colorado, featuring Olympic gold medallists Jonny Moseley and Eric Bergoust; feel the freedom of first tracks at The Canyons in Utah; and reach the top of the world on the Arctic Circle in Tromsø, Norway; plus many more spectacular destinations.
